

Worksheet 1C Safety Symbols (Nelson p.543)

1. Fill in the blanks using the vocabulary below. (Some vocabulary may be used more than once)

burn/corrode
explode

container illness

catch fire product

death

The _____ is hazardous.

The _____ is hazardous.

This _____ will cause _____ or _____.

This _____ will _____ easily if it's near heat, flames or sparks.

This _____ can _____ if it's heated or punctured.

The _____ will _____ skin or eyes on contact, or throat and stomach if swallowed.

2. List 3 lab safety rules.

3. Do all products and chemicals have WHIMS labels? Explain.

4. Match the description with the symbols (letter), and the hazard/danger associated with this symbol.

Symbols

Hazard/Danger

K: Could cause infectious disease and death

L: Could burn/corrode you on contact

M: Could cause irritation or other illnesses if exposed repeatedly

N: Could kill you or seriously injured you immediately

O: Could cause explosions or fires if it comes contact with anything that can burn

P: Might react unexpectedly and violently

Q: Could cause explosions if heated or punctured

R: Could catch fires easily

Description of Symbol	Symbol (Letter)	Hazard/Danger (Letter)
Toxic Material - Immediate and Serious
Dangerously Reactive Material
Compressed gas
Toxic Material - Long Term and Concealed
Flammable and Combustible Material
Corrosive Material
Oxidizing Material
Biohazardous Infectious Material		